3. GENERAL INFORMATION TO RESPONDENTS

3.1 Preparation, submission and opening of Proposals

3.1.1 In preparing their proposal, Respondents are expected to examine in detail the documents comprising the RFP. Material deficiencies in providing the information requested may result in rejection of a Proposal. While preparing the proposal, the Respondent must give particular attention to the following:

- The data should be furnished strictly in accordance with the format specified
- All monetary numbers should be in Indian Rupees. Denomination in INR Crores is preferred for large numbers.
- Conciseness of the response will be appreciated

3.1.2 Submission of the data in the wrong type of formats will result in the Proposal being deemed non-responsive. The proposal shall contain no interlineations or overwriting, except as necessary to correct errors made by the Respondents themselves. The person, who has signed the proposal, must initial such corrections. An authorized representative who would be signing the Submission letter shall initial all pages of the proposal with company seal. The proposal along with the data as per the formats mentioned must be submitted at the same time but in a single sealed envelope duly super-scribed as “Central Bank of India –RFP for Corporate Agency arrangement for General Insurance Business”

3.1.3. At the time of opening of offers the respondent or its representative can be present and witness the process on the given date and time. From the time the Proposals are opened to the time the companies are shortlisted, the respondents should not contact the Bank or any officials of the bank on any matter, except to seek clarifications or respond to the queries of the Bank in writing or email. Any effort by insurance companies to influence the Bank in the evaluation, ranking of proposals, and recommendation for award shall result in the rejection of the Bidders' Proposal. The Bank reserves the right to seek clarifications from the Bidders.

3.1.4 All Proposals shall be valid for a period of 180 days from the last date of submission mentioned in the schedule referred above. The Bank will make its best effort to complete the process within this period. However, should the need arise the Bank may request the Respondent to extend the validity period of their proposals. Respondents, who do not agree, have the right to refuse to extend the validity of their Proposals; under such circumstance, the Bank shall not consider such proposal for further evaluation.

3.1.5 The respondents are to submit the RFP in hardcopy format in original along with one set of photocopy and 2 soft copies by means of CD . The documents in the CD should be only in MS-Word.

3.1.6 Proposals of only those respondents will be evaluated, who meet the minimum eligibility criteria as specified in the RFP.

3.1.7 The submission may be made to General Manager - Bancassurance & MF Department, Central Office, 16th floor, Chander Mukhi, Nariman Point, Mumbai- 400021. Proposals received by the Bank after the specified time on the last date shall not be eligible for consideration and shall be summarily rejected.

3.2 Clarification and Amendment

3.2.1 The Respondent may request a clarification on any clause of the RFP documents up to the date indicated in above referred schedule. Any request for clarification must be sent in writing or by email to agmnid@centralbank.co.in. The Bank will respond in writing or by mail. Bank may amend the RFP as a result of any clarification, if Bank deems it necessary.

3.2.2 To facilitate evaluation of Proposals, the Bank may at its sole discretion, seek clarification(s) from any Respondent regarding its proposal. If a Respondent does not provide clarifications sought above within the specified time, its proposal shall be liable to be rejected.

3.2.3 At any time before the submission of Proposals, the Bank may amend the RFP by issuing an addendum and hosting it in the Bank's website. The addendum will be binding on all the Respondents. To give Respondents reasonable time in which to take an amendment into account in their Proposals the Bank may, if the amendment is substantial, extend the deadline for the submission of Proposals.

3.3 Rejection of proposals

3.3.1 The Bank reserves the right to reject the proposal if,

- The Respondent does not meet any of the eligibility criteria mentioned under para 2.4
- The proposal is incomplete as per the RFP requirements
- Any condition stated by the Respondent is not acceptable to the Bank
- If the RFP and any of the terms and conditions stipulated in this document are not accepted by the authorized representatives of the Respondent
- Required information is not submitted as per the format given
- Any information submitted by the Respondent is found to be untrue / fake / false

- The Respondent does not provide, within the time specified by the Bank, the supplemental information / clarification sought by the Bank for evaluation of the proposal.

3.3.2 The Bank shall be under no obligation to accept any offer received in response to this RFP and shall be entitled to reject any or all offers without assigning any reason whatsoever. The Bank may abort entire process at any stage without thereby incurring any liability to the affected Respondent(s) or any obligation to inform the affected Respondent(s) of the grounds for Bank's action.

3.4 Selection Criteria

A Proposal shall be rejected, if it does not meet the minimum eligibility criteria as elaborated in this document. Only eligible proposals shall be further taken up for Technical Evaluation. The selection process shall consist of two stages. The first stage will be for the technical proposal evaluation on the basis of information sought in technical parameters and weightage table and the second stage shall be the presentation to the committee. Bank will examine the proposal submitted by the respondents / bidders. Proposals will be evaluated on the basis of experience, understanding of Indian Market , experience of managing bank as insurance partner, ability to generate higher business from customized products, claim settlement ratio, grievance redress, training, regulatory compliance etc. Bank may call respondents / bidders for any additional details. Technical Evaluation of all eligible bids will be done on the basis of the information sought in Form 2. This will carry a weightage of 70 marks.

The shortlisted respondents / bidders will be invited for a presentation on a specified day and time. This will carry weightage of 30 marks. Respondents / bidders will be intimated about the date & time of presentation and will have to make their own travel and stay arrangements at their own cost. Bank will not bear the cost for the same. .Respondents / bidders will be ranked on the basis of the sum total of the marks scored in technical evaluation process and the presentations made by the respondents / bidders and top company will be shortlisted to enter into an arrangement under Corporate agency for distribution of General Insurance products through Bank's branch network. Bank's decision in this regard would be final.

In case the successful bidder is not agreeable to signing the service level agreement or imposes any conditions not acceptable to the Bank or communicate any changes from its stated responses in the RFP or presentation made to the Bank which may not be acceptable to the Bank, the Bank may at its sole discretion decide to partner with the next ranked bidder. Here it would be pertinent to mention that Bank shall be within its rights to stipulate such terms and conditions as it may deem fit including the best practices to be followed by the insurance company and those practices which it should not adopt in the service level agreement / Memorandum of Understanding.

The Bank reserves the right to accept or reject any application without assigning any reason whatsoever. The Bank will not be responsible for any postal delays and submission by way of e-mail is not acceptable.

4. OTHER TERMS AND CONDITIONS

4.1 Force Majeure: Notwithstanding the above provisions, the Successful bidder shall not be liable for termination on account of default if and to the extent that the delay or failure to perform its obligations under the Contract is the result of an event of Force Majeure. For purposes of this clause, "Force Majeure" means an event beyond the control of the Bidder and not involving the Bidder's fault or negligence and not foreseeable. Such events may include, but are not restricted to, wars or revolutions and epidemics. If a Force Majeure situation arises, the Bidder shall promptly notify the Bank in writing of such condition and the cause thereof. Unless otherwise directed by the Bank in writing, the Bidder shall continue to perform its obligations under the Contract as far as is reasonably practical, and shall seek all reasonable alternative means of performance not prevented by the Force Majeure event.

The Bank is entitled to be indemnified by the Bidder for any loss/damage to reputation and / or for any breach of confidentiality. The information referred to shall include but not restricted to any and every information concerning the Bank and its customers which the Bidder comes to know only on account of his being associated with the Bank through the contract which the Bidder otherwise would not have had access to. The Bidder shall also not make any news release, public announcements or any other reference on RFP or contract without obtaining prior written consent from the Bank.

4.3 Resolution of disputes: All disputes and controversies between Bank and Bidder shall be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Courts in Mumbai and the parties agree to submit themselves to the jurisdiction of such court.

4.4 Arbitration: Any controversy related to the bidder under and pursuant to the MOU signed between Bank and the bidder, the interpretation thereof or its breach shall, if not resolved by mutual discussions between the parties, be settled by binding arbitration in accordance with the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. Arbitration shall be conducted in Mumbai in English language. The Arbitral Tribunal shall be composed of one Arbitrator to be appointed by each Party, and a third Umpire appointed by such Arbitrators. Each Party shall bear the costs, fees; etc of the arbitrator nominated by them and shall equally bear the costs of the Umpire.

4.5 Disclaimer: Subject to any law to the contrary, and to the maximum extent permitted by law, Bank and its directors, officers, employees, contractors, representatives, agents and advisors disclaim all liability from any loss, claim, expense (including without limitation, any legal fees, costs, charges, demands, actions, liabilities, expenses or disbursements incurred therein or incidental thereto) or damage, (whether foreseeable or not) ("Losses") suffered by any person acting on or refraining from acting because of any presumption or information

(whether oral or written and whether express or implied), including forecasts, statements, estimates or projections contained in this RFP document or conduct ancillary to it whether or not the losses arise in connection with any ignorance, negligence, inattention, casualness, disregard, omission, default, lack of care, immature information, falsification or misrepresentation on the part of Bank or any of its directors, officers, employees, contractors, representatives, agents or advisors.

4.6 The commission structure shall be as per IRDAI prescribed rates only. It shall be sole responsibility of General Insurance Company to comply with all statutory and regulatory provisions (including RBI, IRDA, SEBI and other Statutory / Government Authorities) while delivering the services mentioned in the RFP.
